January 2010

A CONGREGATION OF PROGRESSIVE MINDS AND CARING CONNECTIONS
Bill Denton

Schedule of Sunday Services

Jan. 3	Bill Nichols: "Who Do You Think You Are" Considering a new year for a new you.
Jan. 10	Dr. Edward Frost: "Living The Just And Good Life" The Republic is a huge, often dense, and complicated work; but the question at the center of it is fundamental. The question is whether it is better to live justly--that is, to live good lives, or unjustly, to live bad lives. Obviously, it is better to live justly, yes? You and I know that it isn't that simple. It is not required that you read "The Republic" in preparation.
Jan. 17	Dr. Bill Denton: Martin Luther King Jr. The Social Justice Impulse in American Unitarianism. American Unitarianism emerged during the first half of the nineteenth century as a theological movement challenging conventional religious views of the day. Many of its leaders were also committed to the creation of a more just and democratic American society. They split, however, over how best to accomplish this transformation. How are today's Unitarian Universalists influenced by this controversy? And, can it be resolved?
Jan. 24	To Be Announced:
Jan. 31	Dan Teslow: Robert Burns, "The best laid schemes o' mice an' men, Gang aft agley." The life, works and religious legacy of Scotland's National Poet, Bobbie Burns, from a Unitarian Universalist perspective
